ASK THEM YOURSELF

Want to ask a famous person a question? Send the question, on a postcard, to "Ask," Family Weekly, 641 Lexington Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. We'll pay $5 for published questions. Sorry, we can't answer others.

FOR REP. SHIRLEY CHISHOLM (D.-N.Y.)

How did you become interested in politics? If you had to give it up, what would you do instead?—A.S., Great Falls, Mont.

● I became involved when the area in which I lived (Brooklyn) was without representation by a "community" person. I saw the need for bringing the problems and perspective of my people into the democratic process. I was outspoken enough to earn the attention and support of many sharing my concern for a better quality of life for minorities. I have been interested in the needs of children, education, day care, and preventive health care. If I wasn't in politics, I wouldn't be content without a full-time pursuit. I'd write and work with young people.

FOR POLLY BERGEN,

co-host of NBC-TV's "Not for Women Only"

Was there ever a time when you made a fool of yourself in public?—B.R., Devil's Lake, N.D.

● Yes, and it was very public. I was doing commercials for a soft-drink company, and we just could not get it right. We went through endless takes, with me drinking what seemed to be gallons and gallons of the stuff. Finally, we got a perfect take; and then—a drowning rumble came from my stomach (due to all that soda). It was louder than the voice-over, so we started all over again.

FOR WOODY ALLEN, star of "The Front"

Why do you make films?—S.B., Stockton, Calif.

● This might sound dull, but it's because I have the opportunity to, and I'm living in a world where everyone wants to make movies. Also, more by luck than judgment, due to a series of bizarre quirks, I'm in a position where I can write, direct and star in my own films. I have total control; no one else approves the script. Had anyone told me 15 years ago that I'd be the lead in any movie, I'd have laughed. I still can't believe it.

FOR ARA PARSEGHIAN,

former football coach of Notre Dame

Did not being a Catholic have anything to do with your decision to leave Notre Dame?—Walter Doll, E. Lansing, Mich.

● No way! Nor did it hinder me in my 11-year association with that school. My decision to leave Notre Dame was based totally on my physical, emotional and mental exhaustion. Essentially, I was living too fast a pace.

FOR HILDEGARDE

I understand you wanted to be a nun when you were young. True?—J. J. O'Brien, Durham, N.C.

● Yes. In fact, I am a member of the Third Order of the Carmelites with the privilege of being buried as a nun in the Carmelite religious habit. I have the option of retiring some day to a convent as a nun.

FOR MARY BROOKS, U.S. Director of the Mint

Has the phrase "In God We Trust" always appeared on our coins?—Mrs. Carl Hutte, Largo, Fla.

● It first appeared on the bronze two-cent piece in 1864. The Act of July 11, 1955, mandated that the motto henceforth be inscribed on all our coins.

FOR LLOYD M. BUCHER,

former captain of the U.S.S. Pueblo

Is it true that Hal Holbrook offered to give you the Emmy he won for his portrayal of you in the TV special on the U.S.S. Pueblo?—D. J. Sullivan, Brighton, Mass.

● Yes, that's true. I wrote him back and said that since no one at ABC-TV had bothered to contact my crew members or me before the special was made, we were not able to make any suggestions or help in any way. So I didn't believe I should accept his Emmy.

FOR IAN ANDERSON of the rock group Jethro Tull

Why did you cut your long, beautiful hair?—J.D., Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

● For the same reason that I lopped off part of my beard. The ends were starting to split, and the result was horrible. I asked my barber and hairdresser for advice. They suggested the drastic action that I took—a substantial trim.

FOR SYLVIA WALLACE, author of "The Fountains"

Since your book is about beauty spas, can you tell me whether these places cater exclusively to the wealthy?—G.S., Athens, Ohio

● Mostly, but not entirely. There are secretaries saving up for one memorable week, their big splurge. One spa (I won't say which one) runs a kind of F.B.I. check on all inquiries. If the applicant doesn't appear up to par, she'll get a "sorry, we're full-up" response. But that doesn't happen too often. Spas are usually welcoming and friendly.

FOR THE "ASK THEM YOURSELF" EDITOR

Could you tell me if there are any upcoming films with dogs in them? I recently saw "Won Ton Ton—the Dog That Saved Hollywood" and loved the dog more than the movie.—Barbara Warnoke, Flint, Mich.

● One is "The Deep" (a film made from Peter Benchley's new book), in which the dog, Tiger (playing the part of "Charlotte" in the film), is making her screen debut. "Here's one of the funny stories about her," says director Peter Yates: "She didn't always do what she was supposed to do in front of the cameras. For instance, in the movie, when Jacqueline Bisset sees Charlotte for the first time, the dog is supposed to snap and look ferocious. Jackie's line is, 'Does she bite?' Instead of barking, Charlotte waddled up to Jackie, wagged her tail and started licking her. It required five takes just for Charlotte to keep her tail still."

Jacqueline Bisset
